Royal BC Museum Extends Orcas Exhibition Until March 31, 2022

VICTORIA, BC—The Royal BC Museum announced today that their feature exhibition *Orcas: Our Shared Future* will be extended until March 31, 2022.

“The exhibition extension will allow museum visitors the opportunity to take a deep dive into the stories and science surrounding the orca, whether they are seeing the exhibition for the first time or returning to see it again,” says Erika Stenson, A/Vice President of Museum Operations at the Royal BC Museum. “We are looking forward to welcoming Victoria residents—as well as snowbirds, spring break-ers and all visitors to the region—during the extended run.”

For the full experience, visitors can combine their visit to Orcas: Our Shared Future with a viewing of Humpback Whales at IMAX Victoria—a whale of a time!
