

BIOGRAPHIES

Connor Stefanison Winner - Wildlife Photographer of the Year 2015 – Rising Star Portfolio Award

Connor Stefanison (1991) is a photographer from Burnaby, BC, Canada. Living in British Columbia, Connor has learned about wilderness firsthand. His photography draws from knowledge gained throughout his life engaging in various outdoor activities. Mountain biking first sparked his interest in photography, which he took up in 2008 at the age of 17. Influenced by his outdoor background, his focus in photography quickly switched from sports to nature.

Numerous publications have featured Connor's work, including: Outdoor Photography, Outdoor Photography Canada, Canadian Geographic, Nature's Best Photography, Canadian Camera Magazine, Wild Planet Photography Magazine, British Columbia Magazine and Audubon Magazine, as well as various books and newspapers.

www.connorstefanison.com

Prof. Jack Lohman
CEO – Royal BC Museum

Professor Jack Lohman is Chief Executive of the Royal BC Museum, Canada, the Chairman of the National Museum in Warsaw, Poland and Professor in Museum Development at the Bergen National Academy of the Arts, Norway. He was previously Director of the Museum of London (2002-2012), where he led a £20million redevelopment of the Museum's Galleries of Modern London and the creation of the Museum of London Docklands. He was Chief Executive of Iziko Museums of Cape Town, South Africa, (1999-2002), an organization consisting of 15 national museums. He was Chairman of ICOM (the International Council of Museums) UK (2002-2008) and a member of the UK National Commission to UNESCO (2002-2010). He is editor in chief of UNESCO's Museums and Diversity series. Jack studied History of Art at the University of East Anglia and Architecture at the Freien Universitat in Berlin. He has received doctorates from the Polish University in London (PUNO) and Westminster University, London.

