

RG10 Conversion Lists

These lists provide conversions between the Library and Archives Canada volume and microfilm reel numbers for the RG10 series, and the microfilm reel numbers and series reference codes for copies held in the custody of the BC Archives.

The RG10 series contains the “historical records relating to Indian Affairs created by the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development and its predecessors.” As these are federal records, the originals are held at Library and Archives Canada (LAC). The BC Archives holds microform copies of a large number of the RG10 records pertaining to British Columbia.

If you have a LAC volume or reel number, and want to access the BC Archives copy, use these conversion lists to identify the correct microfilm reel number. The BC Archives does not hold copies of all records pertaining to British Columbia; if you do not find the LAC reference number in these conversion lists an equivalent BC Archives reel does not exist.

The University of British Columbia Library and the Union of BC Indian Chiefs Resource Centre also hold RG10 microfilm, and may hold copies that the BC Archives does not.

See the LAC Indian Affairs Record Group 10 \(RG10\) Inventory for more information about the content of the records.
